

6th Grade Health Review Guide Child Abuse

1. Which of the following statements is true?
 - A. When reporting Child Abuse, you do not have to give your name.
 - B. Child Abusers are poor.
 - C. Neglect is not a form of Child Abuse.
 - D. If you know of a case of Child Abuse, you should mind your own business.
2. Which one of the following is NOT a cause of child abuse?
 - A. fear of spoiling the child.
 - B. loving the child too much
 - C. the parent was abused as a child.
 - D. fear of losing control of the child.
3. As a cause of Child Abuse; an adult not being able to cope, refers to:
 - A. not being able to operate heavy equipment
 - B. not being able to deal with problems in their own life.
 - C. not being able to think.
 - D. not caring about other people.
4. When reporting Child Abuse, the most important pieces of information you should give are:
 - A. Who you think did the abuse.
 - B. Where the abuser lives.
 - C. First and last name of the abused child.
 - D. Friends of the abused child that could be interviewed.
5. Why should NO ONE be afraid to report Child Abuse?
 - A. It's simple
 - B. you don't have to give your own name
 - C. it doesn't cost anything
6. Why do you NEED to report this abuse for another student you know, or a friend?
 - A. no one should have to deal with this, and it's important to help.
 - B. It is embarrassing and humiliating; they will not be able to report it themselves
 - C. if it were you, you'd appreciate someone helping you.
 - D. All of the Above

List three pieces of information you will give, when reporting Child Abuse.

When you decide that you need to report child abuse, we said you should try to talk to a Mandatory Reporter. WHAT IS a Mandatory Reporter?

List 2 People or Places you could go to, to report abuse on a friend, THAT ARE MANDATORY REPORTERS.